Planting trees, growing community.

A Green Gift That Lasts Many Lifetimes

Mary Ann Jung inspects a Tree Tribute she gave in memory of her friend.

Tree Davis works to keep Davis green, clean and cool by teaching the community to plant and care for trees. For more information, visit www.treedavis.org or call (530) 758-7337.

Marking a special occasion or honoring the memory of a loved one is an opportunity to give a unique gift that will make an impact. Tree Davis Tree Tributes and Honorary Trees are green gifts that honor a special person with a gift that will endure longer than any trend.

Dedicating a tree is a unique way to celebrate any special occasion, including holidays, births, anniversaries, weddings, birthdays, graduations, Father's Day, Mother's Day, to say thank you or to remember a loved one.

And while you create a gift that lasts, you also are helping Tree Davis keep the Davis community green, clean and cool for many years to come.

Tree Tributes

Tree Tributes are planted in Davis parks, schools, greenbelts and neighborhoods. Due to the nature of our work, the trees are not identified with the recipient's name.

When you make a Tree Tribute, your honoree will receive a hand-made card with your personalized message and a special wildflower seed mix, and your name will be printed in our Branching Out newsletter.

Honorary Trees

Honorary Trees are planted in one of our Honorary Groves at 1515 Shasta Drive or 3141 Fifth Street in Mace Ranch Park. An engraved plaque is installed on a central sculpture in the grove, and you can request a private planting and plaque installation ceremony.

In addition, your recipient will receive a hand-made card with your personalized message and a special wildflower seed mix, and your name will be printed in our Branching Out newsletter.
